

Beth LeClair

Elizabeth Stout (Hoppin) LeClair, 67, entered into eternal life Friday November 17, 2017. Beloved wife of Paul for 45 years; dear mother of Tim (Kim) LeClair, Peter LeClair, and John (Katie) LeClair; caring grandmother of Oliver, Marley, Avery and Brady; sister of James Hoppin, Joyce Love, and the late Peter Hoppin. Beth was born the daughter of James and Betty Hoppin on December 28, 1949 in Detroit, Michigan.

She was a graduate of Ferndale High School, Oakland University (BA), and Wayne State University (MA). After working as a teacher and travel agent, Beth became a registered dietitian and counseled patients at Mount Clemens General Hospital and in the Henry Ford Hospital System.

Beth loved spending time with family and enjoyed dining and playing cards with friends, swimming, Broadway musicals, and travel, especially when a trip included touring with friends and visiting her sons and grandchildren.

Church ministry was an important aspect of Beth's spiritual life. She served on several Cursillo weekends (A Short Course in Christianity) as a speaker, organizer, table facilitator and rector. She was involved in planning and organizing several Spiritual Journey women's retreats at Columbiere Conference Center. After six years of Total Ministry formation, Beth served in a number of ministry roles at St. Patrick's Episcopal Church.

The LeClair family will welcome guests for a visitation at St. Patrick's Episcopal Church on Monday, November 20, 2017 from 5 p.m. to 8 p.m.

Her memorial service will be at 6:00 pm on Tuesday, November 21, also at St. Patrick's.

A reception in the church fellowship hall will follow the service.

St. Patrick's is located at:

1434 East 13 Mile Rd.
Madison Heights, MI 48071

Those who desire, may donate to St. Patrick's Missions in Beth's memory.
